Comrade Membership Chairperson:

Ref: One year free membership for Retired Military Members.

Should a retired military member inquire about becoming a member, a FREE one year membership is offered by Dominion Command. Please ask them complete the attached application and mail to the address on the application form. The online form can be found at http://www.legion.ca/wp-content/uploads/2013/09/Retired_MML_Application.pdf

Once their membership card is received from Dominion Command they can transfer to your Branch.

The Legion provides the following information to Military Members upon retirement:

"As part of our efforts to help Veterans transition to civilian life, the Legion, in cooperation with the Canadian Armed Forces Depart With Dignity Program, offers a free, one-year membership to all retired Forces members who are not yet a Legion member. This free membership, which includes a subscription to Legion Magazine and access to Legion Member Benefit programs, is one way we thank Veterans for their service, and provides Veterans with the opportunity to get to know the Legion.

As you move into a new phase of life, being a Legion member is a great way to stay connected to the military family, to honour and support those who served and sacrificed, and to strengthen your community. For those who want to be more involved in the Legion, you can transfer your membership to a local Legion Branch at any time. As a member of a Legion Branch, you have opportunities to volunteer in your community, add your voice to Legion advocacy efforts, become involved in leadership roles at your Branch, and help shape the Legion in your community and across the country."
