Subject: GENERAL BY-LAW 104
Message: Comrades

I write at this busiest of time to offer a reminder to all Members that we are each required to adhere to the General By-laws of The Royal Canadian Legion. I draw your attention specifically to General By-law 104. copied below with the expectation of compliance.

104. Only the Dominion President, or a person delegated by him, after consultation with the Senior Elected

Officers of the Dominion Executive Council, shall make public any statement, oral or written, as to the policy of the Legion, in connection with any question or matter, unless or until such policy has been declared:

- a. by a meeting of the branch affected, or by the executive committee of such branch, as to matters of local character and within the jurisdiction (see Section 109) of the branch;
- b. by a provincial convention or provincial executive council, as to matters of a provincial character and within the jurisdiction of such Provincial Command; and
- c. by a Dominion Convention or the Dominion Executive Council, as to all other matters and questions and particularly those of a national character.

Should you require assistance, clarification or further information please contact NS/NU Command Executive Director Valerie Mitchell-Veinotte.

Thank you for your continued dedication in service to NS/NU Veterans and their families.
