Subject: Outdoor Remembrance Ceremonies and Door to Door Poppy Canvassing

Message: Comrades: Replies from the Government of NS to questions around Remembrance Ceremonies as they relate to current health orders and door to door poppy canvassing are copied below for your information.

Outdoor Remembrance Day Ceremonies can proceed without proof of vaccination, if there is no clear entry point. While masking wouldn't be mandatory outside, given proof of vaccination is not required, attendees and participants should be encouraged to wear masks – providing an additional layer of protection.

There is nothing in the public health order that would prevent door to door canvassing. It would be an operational decision for each branch.
